PASTORS RETIRED.

One Because of Old Age and One that Two

Churches May Unite. THENTON, April 10 .- The Presbytery of New Brunswick at its spring meeting in Milford resterday dissolved the pastoral relations between the Rev. Dr. Abraham Gosman and the tween the Rev. Dr. Abraham Gosman and the Presbyterian Church at Lawrenceville. The action was taken at the request of Dr. Gosman, who has served the church since May 22, 1851, when he was ordained. He has been elected pastor emeritus of the church.

The Presbytery also dissolved the pastoral relations of the Rev. Dr. Lewis W. Mudge and the Second Church at Princeton. Dr. Mudge made the request for the reason that there was not rusm enough in the town for two churches, and he thought that with him out of the way the First and Second churches might unite.

Charged with an Attempt on Her Brother-

ETNA, N. J., April 10.-Justice Angeil to-day issued a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Theodore Schulke of Hillsdale. She is charged by her brother-in-law, Albert Schulke, with an at-tempt to take his life by shooting at him with a shotgun on March 27, when he did not leave her fard after being ordered to do so. Mrs. Schulke was placed under $200 bonds for her appearance before the September Grand Jury at Hackensack. Her husband fur-bished the bonds.

Discharge of an Obstinate Prisener from Brooklyn dail.

William Maxwell, the most obstinate prisoner ever confined in the Raymond street isil in Brooklyn, was released yesterday. He had spent three years in jail because he refused to pay his wife a weekly sum for her support or ask that of his friends to go on his bail. WOMEN'S SILVER JUBILEE.

Presbyterian Women's Mission Board Cele brating Its Twenty-fifth Year,

The Women's Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church began yesterday in the University Place Church the celebration of its silver jubilee. Mrs. Henry N. Beers, President of the society, presided. The church was filled with delegates from all over this State and from New England.

Mrs. Beers made a jubilee speech on the work of the society since it was organized in 1870. Miss Frances B. Hawley, one of the foreign secretaries, told of the condition of the society's work in its different missions. Speaking of the work in its different missions. Speaking of the Japanese-Chinese war and its effect on these countries and on Corea, she said:

"It is believed that the war will accomplish much to advance Christianity there. In Corea especially this is true. The war will go far to pull down the strong conservatism of the natives toward new religious belief. In Japan Christian chapiains have been appointed in the army. Nurses from our schools have been appointed in the Red Cross hospitals, and the Governors have asked for more than we could supply.

ernors have asked for more than we could subply.

"In Corea many needed reforms have taken place, and it looks as though more were to come. In a few years we believe there will be a wonderful advance there in religious life."

Reference was made to the valuable part the Society of Christian Endeavor is playing in the field of foreign missionary work. Reference was also made to the enthusiastic work of the children in Syris in helping the missionaries. In one school the children, for a year, blacked the shoes of the teachers and of the older pupils in order to raise money for the mission work.

The difficulty of converting Moslems was commented on.

Committees were appointed and other routine

Committees were appointed and other routine work was done.

The receipts of the society for the last year were $63,376.

At the evening session the Rev. Dr. George Alexander, pastor of the University Place Church, presided. Addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. H. H. Jessup of Syria, and the Rev. Dr. John Gillespie. Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions.

Dr. Jessup has spent forty years in Syria as a missionary and is home on a vacation, which he gets once in ten years.

"I can tell you," he said, "it does one's heart good to come back to this land where there are liberty of speech and absolute liberty of conscience, under the glorious Stars and Stripes.

"What strikes one in coming home is the prodigious wealth of the United States. Formerly the steeple of Trinity Church was the highest work of man seen from the incoming steamship. But now it is overtopped, dwarfed, by two ironbeamed, sky-scraping structures. The world is overtopping the Church. The vast accumulation of wealth is not moving along hand in hand with the teaching of Christ."

Then he spoke of the work done in Syria. The condition of women there had greatly improved. The Mohammedan has unconsciously been drinking in the ideas spread by the publications of the American presses at Beyroot, he said, and this is going to destroy polygamy in the Turkis empire.

Dr. Gillespie talked business. "We have to face a deficit of $200,000," he said. "The means of carrying on our missions have fallen behind, owing to the hard times. I am sfraid we will have to cut a piece of the loaf this year."

FIGHT AFTER AN ELECTION.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., April 10.-Some of the colored voters in the Sixth ward vesterday indulged in beer and late last night they became riotous. Elias Sammons and Ralph Scudder got fighting while a crowd was waiting to hear the result of the election. Scudder knocked Sammons down. Sammons seized a baseball bat and made for Scudder who ran into an alleyway which lad to his house. Sammons, with a crowd at his heels.

In the alley Scudder was joined by other ne groes, and he took a stand against the crowd. Several pistol shots rang out, and the crowd be gan to fall back. Others joined it soon, and some one suggested that they raid the shantles and lynch every negro that they could lay their

At once cries of "Lynch the niggers !" filled the air. Constable James Short, who was working around the polls, came to the alley and succeeded in preventing the crowd from doing any serious mischief. He held them in check until the police arrived.

Two men in the crowd were wounded, John Smith and John Forman. Mr. Smith is the owner of several houses in the neighborhood of the negro houses, and was going to his own house down the alley when he was struck.

A FENCE OR A GRAPE ARBOR?

Neighbor Ross Builds Something to Shut Off the View of Neighbor Wardell's Stable. A board fence, twenty-five feet high, which for a few days has stood between the grounds of William Ross and Judge W. Bennett Wardell, on Bay Ridge avenue, is furnishing food for gossip to the residents of Bay Ridge. Mr. Ross and Judge Wardell have hitherto been the closest of friends. The change in their relations began, it is said, when Judge Wardell relations began, it is said, when Judge Wardell built a stable at the end of his lot on the line of the property of Mr. Ross.

A few days ago, according to the story, one of the daughters of Mr. Ross saw a colored man looking from one of the stable windows into her room. This had such an affect on her nerves that she fainted, and the noise of her fall brought her sister into the room. She was restored to consciousness, but has not yet, it is said, thoroughly recovered. The matter aroused Mr. Ross's indignation and the immediate erection of the fence followed.

Judge Wardell is reported to have said that he has not had a colored man in his employ since last September. Mr. Ross declines to discuss the episode which is said to have disturbed his household, and Mrs. Ross says that the obstruction before the stable windows is for use as a grape arbor.

MASONS AGAINST CREMATION.

The Grand Master of Pennsylvania Decides that It Is Not "Christian Burlal," PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—Cremation services have been declared by Masonic authority not to be Christian burial. The question that brought about this decision arose over the making of arrangements for the funeral of the late Charles H. Peisser, the well-known restaurant man, It had been Mr. Pelaser's wish to be cremated, and his family decided to follow his wishes. Mr. Peisser was a Mason and a member of Rising Star Lodge. Oriental Chapter, and of Kadosh Commandery.

These organizations were invited to take part in the funeral, but before accepting it was learned that it was the intention of the family to have the services when the body was cremated. The question was at once raised whether, under Masonic law, this would be a Christian burial. The matter was referred to the Grand Master of Pennsylvania, Judge Arnoid, and he rendered a decision that services at a cremation were not Christian burial under Masonic law.

The family, therefore, decided to abandon their original intention. The funeral took place to-day, and the Masonic organization attended in a body and performed Masonic rites. The body was then placed in a vault for a time. his family decided to follow his wishes. Mr.

SOUTH DAKOTA'S NATIONAL GUARD.

Gov. Sheldon Says They Must Disband or Pay Their Own Expenses. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., April 10. Gov. Sheldon has issued an order to each company of the National Guard in the State that after July 1 of this year all assistance from the State will be cut off. He says that the companies have the cut off. He says that the companies have the option of actual disbandment or a continuation on the basis of each company paying all of its own expenses, including armory rent.

This action, the Governor says, is necessary, in view of the fact that the last Lexislature cut the appropriation for the Guards from $8,000 to $3,00. The appropriation made is simply for the Quartermaster-General's office.

Inspector-General C. T. Jeffers says that, in his opinion, this order of the Governor is the death blow to the National Guard in this State for at least two years. He has no reason to hope, in the face of the hard times, that any companies in fithe State will undertake the expense of keeping up their organization, as the expense as considerable. The Governor says that should the companies see fit to retain their organization the heads of departments, staff and field officers will giadly serve without pay.

BUCK'S DOUBLE CRIME

HE KILLS MRS. WILLIAMS, THEN TAKES HIS OWN LIFE. He Was a Strolling Zither Player and the

Woman's Husband Befriended Him-The Crims Was Seen by Two Little Girls. A double tragedy took place yesterday after oon in the second story of a frame tenement house at 105 Magazine street, Newark. It was murder and suicide. The victim of the murder was a woman neither young nor prepossessing The murderer and suicide was a bartender whom the woman's husband had befriended. Tessie Williams, the murdered woman, was washing the family clothes when Joseph Buck, the murderer and suicide, entered the room and shot her through the head. Then he went into a front room and fired two bullets into his own head, one behind the car and the other over the left eye. When he fired the shots at the woman her fifteen-year-old daughter was in the room and her eight-year-old step daughter was just entering. They saw the shooting. Williams, the husband of the woman, is a

German, and his wife and Buck were Germans also. Williams is employed in a stoneyard and earned $20 a week. Buck was a zither player known as "Tyrola Sipp" and played in sale Early in the winter Buck had a quarrel with s man named Eggers, in whose saloon he did odd jobs, and Williams, feeling an interest in him; proposed to give him employment. Williams jobs, and Williams, feeling an interest in him, proposed to give him employment. Williams hired a place at the corner of Prince street and South Orangs avenue and opened a saloon, leaving his wife and Buck to take care of it while he was at work. Recently Mrs. Williams told her husband that Buck, when under the influence of liquor, became too familiar. Williams scolded Huck repeatedly, but each time Buck apologized and promised to behave. Finally Williams had a talk with his wife, which resulted in the giving up of the saloon to Buck without any consideration. This is Williams's story of the circumstances, and he says that his wife went to Magazine street, which is two miles from the saloon, and hired four rooms, just to get away from Ruck.

Huck was at the house, however, on Saturday last, the day on which the Williamses moved in, lie talked nothing but business then. He paid another visit ou Tuesday, and, showing Mrs. Williams a revolver, made threats against her husband. As soon as he left the woman went to the stoneyard and told her husband. He warned her not to let fluck get into the house again.

Yesterday when Ruck arrived he knocked at the hall door. He was not in the habit of knocking, and Mrs. Williams was thrown off her guard and said "Comein." When she saw that it was Buck she asked why he came, and he answered that it was none of her business. He leaned upon a bureau which had not been removed from the kitchen and watched her as she stood over the washtub with her back toward him. He asked several questions which she would not answer, and finally he got the pistof from his pocket, and, holding it close to her head, pulled the trigger. She fell to the floor, carrying the washtub with her.

Then Buck went into the next room and fired another shot, pessibly at his own head, but it missed, and he returned to the kitchen to assure himself that the woman was dead or dring. Then he went into another room and fired another shot, pessibly at his own head, but it missed, and he returned to the kitchen to ass

WEBER'S BROKEN ENGAGEMENT

Minnie Millet, 30 years old, of 109 East Twenty-sixth street, has brought an action in the Superior Court through Howe & Hummel to compel Joseph M. Weber, a theatrical manager, to fulfil an alleged agreement by which he promised to settle an action she brought against him for breach of promise of marriage for $5,000. He is a member of the firm of Weber & Fields, and has a company of that name, and two others on the road called the Vaudeville Club and Russell Brothers' come-

She met him in January, 1894, while she was dining with her friend, Frances M. Raymond, in Petrie's restaurant in Cincinnati, Fields was with him. She says that thereafter she got on affectionate terms with Weber, who promised to marry her next May. He went to London last July, and, at his request, she says she fol-lowed him. She found him at the Savoy Hotel, but he started immediately in her cempany for this country, so that she was abroad only a few this country, so that she was abroad only a few hours.

He is a liebrew and she is a Christian, but she says she agreed to embrace his faith in view of the marriage. She submits many letters which she says she received from him. In one he says:

"Now, about the religious question—it is only a matter of form. I never live up to my religion, so you need not worry about that."

On March "30 she says that while they were out one evening he told her that he had changed his mind about marrying, as the responsibilities were too great. Subsequently, on another night, he said he had again decided to marry, but later that night he told her she had better consider the marriage off.

Last Sumlay, she declares, he sent for her to go to his room, saying that he was ill. She went there, and he told her, so she avers, that he would settle her claims on him by a payment of $5,000. She says they went before a notary to carry the agreement into effect, but they disagreed as to the form of the papers, and he declined to pay the money.

THE BRIDE PAID THE FEE.

Fort Wadsworth Girl Married in Fine Raiment at Hoboken at 10 P. M.

Justice of the Peace William F. Rusch of Hoboken was seated in his office shortly after 10 o'clock on Tuesday night when a ring of the door bell aroused him, and in a moment a man and woman entered and announced that they desired to be married. After summoning the necessary witnesses and asking the usual questions the Justice told the pair to stand up and join hands.

At this point the bridegroom whispered to the Justice that the bride would like to retire to a private room for a few moments, and asked it private room for a few moments, and excellent and could do so. Although somewhat surprised, Justice Rusch acquiesced, and the young lady disappeared. Five minutes later she emerged clad in a magnificent wedding gown of white silk, with a veil and orrange blessoms upon her head.

The couple registered as Miss Georgians Johnson, 26 years old, of Fort Wadsworth Staten Island, and Frederick C. Schroeder, 25 years old, a civil engineer of Manner, N. J.

After the ceremony the bride produced a well-filled pocketioos and, extracting a five-dollar bill, presented it to the Justice.

BRIDGE TO WILLIAMSBURGH.

Committee Sent to Albany to Urge Favorable Legislation. A committee of the People's Bridge Association tion of Brooklyn will go to Albany to-day to urge the passage of the Wieman Bridge bill, which has for its object the building of a bridge from Broadway, Williamsburgh, to a point near Grand street, this city. The committee, which is composed of well-known business men, was is composed of well-known business men, was appointed at a meeting of the association in Renwer Hail, at Broadway and Willoughby avenue, last night, with Congressman Bennett presiding.

Ex-Judge Dailey, who made the principal speech, favored the construction of the bridge by the municipalities of New York and Broaklyn rather than by private enterprise. Herman Is, Scharmann and ex-Judge Kenna spoke in the same strain. A letter from President Uliman of the East River Bridge Company to Henry Batterman, who asked for information concerning the contemplated bridge, was read, which showed that the company was willing to turn over the bridge charter it has, with all the assets and franchises and consents, to the city, of course expecting to be indemnified to the extent of its actual expenditures, and no more.

LOCKED UP FOR THE STAMP FRAUDS

The Secretary of the Canadian Supply Com HAMILTON, Ont., April 10,-The following particulars have been ascertained regarding the Canadian Novelty Supply Company, charged with counterfeiting United States

On April 1 a man giving his name as George Morrison, who said he was engaged in buying and selling bankrupt stocks, rented desk room in the store of Arthur S. Fish, a painter, at 22 King William street. Morrison installed in the office as his secretary Mrs. A. T. Mack, recently of East Twenty-third street, New York, and then left, estensibly for the purpose of opening an office in Toronto.

Following out Morrison's instructions, Mrs. Mack wrote out an advertisement, which was inserted in Printer's Ink. 10 Spruce street, New York city, offering to sell $115 worth of two-cent stamps for $100, as the seller had no use for them. The advertisement was identical with one which appeared in the Chicago Tribune, and both advertisements brought numerous replies. Morrison had given Mrs. Mack several carefully Morrison had given Mrs. Mack several carefully sealed packages, but she says ano was not told what the packages contained.

A few days ago she received a letter from Morrison from Buffalo instructing her to forward certain parcels to different addresses in Chicago, and compiled with the request. Later Mrs. Mack received another letter from Morrison saying that one of his agents would call on her and receive all the money belonging to the concern. The agent would identify himself by asking for $0.25. Up to the present time, she says, this man has not called.

There is nothing about the premises to suggest a probability that stamps were manufactured there. Several two-cent United States stamps were found lying in a pigeonhole of the desk. Mrs. Mack said that she did not know if they were ganuing or not.

stamps were found lying in a pigeonhole of the desk. Mrs. Mack said that she did not know if they were gausine or not.

Although Mrs. Mack has apparently no connection with the concern other than being in the employ of Morrison, she will not divulge his address.

Mr. Fish describes Morrison as a man about 30 years of age, silm, rather tall, with dark curly hair, dark skin, and smooth-shaven face, he paid for his desk room in advance and informed Fish that he bought and sold anything from a needle to an anchor.

Postmaster Brown said they had been delivering letters to the Canadian Novelty and Supply Company, at 22 King William street, but he was certain that the concern had not been more than ten days in Hamilton.

Late to-night two detectives connected with the Washington Secret Service Bureau reached here, and after learning all the facts in possession of the local authorities they interviewed Mrs. Mack at the office of the Canadian Novelty Supply Company. She was not very communicative, and the American officers became convinced that she knew more about Morrison's swindling schemes and his whereabouts than she was willing to acknowledge.

At midnight Mrs. Mack was arrested and locked up.

At midnight Mrs. Mack was arrested and locked up.
The Canadian Criminal Code provides that any one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to fourteen years' imprisonment who fraudulently counterfeits any stamps used for the purpose of revenue by the Government of the United Kingdom, Canada, or the provinces, or any foreign province or State. The same penalty is also provided for selling, or offering for sale, or having plates or dies for making such stamps.

MIXED AS TO HUSBANDS.

Louise K. St. Quentin Von der Luhe, who was ormerly a well-known comic opera singer, was the defendant in a divorce suit brought against her by her husband, Henry C. Von der Luhe, which was on trial in the Superior Court yester. day before Judge Gildersleeve. The plaintif charges that his wife was intimate with James M. Butler and other men whose names he does not now know. He says that they were married on July 24, 1888, and there is one child, Louis Theodore, 5 years of age.

The defendant denies the truth of the charges, and brings a cross suit against her husband, as cussing him of intimacy with two actresses She said that her husband deserted her in 1890 after the birth of the child, and that since then she had been compelled to support it.
"Ild you support the child?" she was asked.
"My husband and I," was the reply.
"Your husband?"
"I mean Mr. Butler," said the woman in confusion.

Butler was then called to the stand. He said that he had come there in answer to a subpona. He also referred to the defendant as his wife, and then corrected himself. He said that he had been living with the defendant since 1893, and was at present living with her. with her.

Judge Gildersleeve said that he was averse to granting a decree upon the statements of the plaintiff and the co-respondent, and adjourned the case to let the plaintiff get more evidence.

MRS. BRECKENRIDGE'S SANITY.

She Liked Missions, Exhorted Young Pepie, and Finally Married. A Commission appointed by Judge Giegerich in the Court of Common Pleas, composed of ex-Commissioner Michael T. Daly, Wilber Laramore and H. Valentine Wildman, M. D., and Sheriff's jury, sat yesterday to inquire into the sanity of Mary S, Breckenridge, or Holf, on a petition of her son, Orlo L. Breckenridge. Mrs. Breckenridge is fine looking and is 53 years old. Her husband, Orlo Breckenridge, died in 1863 at Westfield, Mass. Her son, the petitioner, then brought her to live in his fint at 122 West Eighty-fourth street. Here, he alleges, she developed a form of religious manis, and seemed to take a great and sudden interest in missions, especially in one called the Baracco Mission. He says that her mania took the form of bringing young men and women home with her and exhorting them. Among these was Arthur Holf, a young man of 21 years, whom it is said she afterward married. Then her son had her confined in the asylum at Amityville.

Her attorney, Mr. Mott of Brooklyn, got out a writ of habeas corpus, and Justice Bartlett paroled her in the custody of her counsel. The hearing was not finished, and went over until a day to be fixed next week. sanity of Mary S. Breckenridge, or Holf, on a

the matter of assisting in raising a fund for the benefit of the family of the late Joseph Martin, who was leader in the Seventh Assembly die trict. A benefit performance will be given for trict. A bensit performance will be given for such a fund at the Academy of Music on Sunday night. April 21. It was decided that $1,500 be raised for the fund, the organization in every Assembly district to contribute $50 thereto.

After the meeting of the Executive Committee there was a meeting of the committee of the Tammany Society which is to nominate the Tammany Society which is to nominate the new council of Sachems next Monday night. All that could be learned regarding its action was that it was not final, but that it indicated that the number of new Sachems will be even greater than has been hinted.

An Aged Farmer Attempts Suicide. SMITHVILLE, L. I., April 10,-William Valentine, 65 years old, a wealthy farmer of Smith ville South, attempted suicide last night by tak ing Paris green and then shooting himself through the head with a pistol. On a table in his room a piece of paper was found, on which was written: "I was tired of living." Valentine is a widower, and his only daughter got married recently, and went to live at Manor. It is thought that the old man's loneliness preyed upon his mind.

The doctors think that Valentine will recover.

Sutcide Due to Meinucholin, Weyman G. collay, aged 40 years, son of Dr.

GAELIC KICKERS SLING INK, And Almost Cause a Riot Discussing Football Game.

The Gaelic athletes transferred their scene of strife from Ridgewood to the Bowery last night. The Central Council of the Gaelle Athletic Association held a meeting at Military Hall, 193 and as some very important business was to be

The squabble over the football championship was to be settled. About 9 o'clock the various delegates of the clubs gathered. When the meeting was called to order by President C. O'Leary the appended representatives were

C. O'Leary and William Sheriff, Gaelic F. C.; R. O'Keefe and P. J. Donovan, Garryowen F. C.; C. Breen and P. Buckley, Kickham F. C.; Jhn O'Brien and Jon Cranley, McConnell F. C.; Jhn O'Brien and J. O'Donnell, Shannrock F. C.; P. Murray and M. O'Donnell, Shannrock F. C.; P. Murray and P. Bunan, Wolf Tone F. C.; P. O'Sullivan and P. Hughes, Faugh-a-Ballagh F. C.; P. Condon and J. Gesiles F. C.; Mike Dully, O'Brien F. C.; M. Ryan and T. Hannon. Francis Meagher F. C.; Mike O'Brien and P. Lynch. Sarsield F. C.

The first business to be acted upon was in relation to last Sunday's game between the Mitchells and Kickhams at Ridgewood, which resulted in a victory for the former by 4 points to nothing. This struggle was the outcome of a previous game played by these two clubs a few weeks ago. On that occasion the Kickhams were ahead when the ball collapsed just two minutes before the game came to an end. Of course there was an argument over the result. The Kickhams claimed a victory, but they were not sustained by the council when the body met a week ago last night. At that meeting the Kickhams were ordered to play the game over again. They went to Ridgewood last Sunday and the Mitchels were on hand. The latter club refused to play only two minutes, and, after some persuasion, the Kickhams went upon the field and were defeated, as stated above.

Now this particular occurrence, coupled with the conduct of Miss Buckley, the sister of Pat Buckley of the Kickhams, was the thread of discussion at the meeting last night. John O'Brien, President of the Mitchels, who was the object Miss Buckley's attack, was not in a pleasant frame of mind.

After the meeting had voted to give the championship to the Mitchels on the strength of the club's excellent showing in the championship race, and then had reconsidered and later again had decided to have the game played over again, O'Brien became very angry. He slared at President O'Leary, who was doing all in his power to make matters harmonious, and muttered something in an undertone.

power to make matters harmonious, and mut-tered something in an undertone.
Buckley, who was smoking a pipe and taking little interest in the proceedings, said nothing at first. But when O'Brien called him to account for not restraining his sister there was a row at once. O'Brien rushed at Buckley with the fury of a demon. He stumbled across the Secretary's table.

of a demon. He stumbled across the Secretary's table.

The only available weapon was a bottle of ink. O'Brien grabbed this and attempted to hurl it at Buckley and Breen, who represented the kickhams. The ink spilled all over the shirt and trousers of a delegate sliting near, and O'Brien dropped the bottle to the floor.

He then reached over to Buckley and grabbed the latter by the throat. The two grappled and wrestled all over the floor. Friends of both men interfered, and before many seconds had elapsed chairs, sticks, and every article in the hall were flying about.

In the heat of the battle some one opened the door and a large crowd which had not been permitted to attend the meeting rushed inside. That no one was burt was a miracle. The noise and confusion attracted a large crowd below and the street doors of the hall were besieged. Finally peace was restored and the meeting went on as if nothing had happened.

O'Brien declares that if Buckley or Breen attend the gamo between the Mitchels and Kickhams if it is ever played; he will hurt both men. The Council will probably suspend O'Brien and Buckley for their conduct.

The Kickhams intend to take the matter to the courts. Last night all the Presidents of the different clubs in the association were served with subpenas by Lawyer O'Connell, who is counsel for the Kickhams in their fight against the Council for the football championship, which the Kickhams claim they rightly won.

The Weather. The storm which caused the heavy rain in all the Atlantic States was passing northeastward over Nova Scotia yesterday, attended by high northwesterly winds over the middle Atlantic and New England coasts, the velocities ranging from thirty to fifty miles an hour. The high winds dissipated the foggy and rainy conditions in the early morning, and clear weather prevailed throughout the day over the entire country, except for light rain and snow over the Dakotas. It was from ten to twenty degrees colder ove the lake region, middle Atlantic, and New Englan-States, with but little change in the temperature else

A NEW BICYCLE ASSOCIATION To Be Organized on Long Islant - Bracklyn Bicycle Club Disantizfied,

The Brooklyn Blevele Club has decided to withdraw from membership in the Metropolitan Association of Cycling Clubs, and has undertaken to form an association of cycling clubs from the organizations in Brooklyn and on Long Island for the purpose of supporting cycling and maintaining the rights of wheelmer A committee consisting of Waldo E. Fuller, Michael Furst, and William O. Tate, have been appointed to confer with the clubs on Long Island for the purpose of effecting a new organ ization at once. The withdrawal of the Brooklyn Club from the Metropolitan Association is ascribed to the fact that the latter association has not fulfilled the objects of its organization, and, as a consequence, is a useless aid to wheelmen. Considerable dissatisfaction has been expressed by the club members of the Metropolitan Association, and the loss of the biggest club in the association may have a tendency to induce other clubs to withdraw. R. G. Betts, one of the leading men in the Metropolitan Association, in an interview with a SUN reporter regarding the probable result of the Brooklyn Bievele Club's action, said "The action of the Brooklyn Club comes somewhat in the nature of a surprise. The First Vice-President of the association is W. E. Fuiler, a member of the Brooklyn Club, and the latter organization has always been represented at our meetings. The charge that the association has not fulfilled the object of its organization is inaccurate, as the association has been foremost in cycling matters since its formation. If we have not fulfilled the objects of our organizatio the clubs, members of the association, are directly responsible for not sending representatives to our meeting to suggest reforms that were needed. All the Brooklyn clubs are members of the Metropolitan Association, and very likely the formation of an organization on Long Island will result in their withdrawal from our association. It seems senseless to maintain independent bicycle associations in various sections when one strong body of wheelmen would be far more successful in attending to the wants of the wheelmen."

Capt. C. H. Weeks of the Riverside Wheelmen announces that his club will hold an open century run to Sayville, L. L. on May 19. There will be a slow and fast division, the fermer in charge of the road officers and the latter under the supervision of the racing men of the club. Medals will be awarded to all the survivors. Special prizes will be presented to all woman survivors. A banner will be given to the club having the greatest number of men finish. The Riverside Club will be debarred from competing for the prize. An entrance fee of $2 will be charged. Entries will be received by C. H. Weeks, 232 West 104th street.

The General Committee of the L. A. W. meet have decided to cooperate with bicycle associations who propose to hold century runs from various parts of the country to the national meet at Asbury Park in July. It is the intention to consolidate the various runs into one century under the management of the Associated Cycling Clubs of New Jersey. The riders from New York, New Jersey, and other Eastern points will start from Newark on July 6; the Pennsylvania, Western, and Southern clubs will join the run at New Brunswick. Charley Murphy, the Class B racing man, has requested permission to be allowed to ride an exhibition mile during the race meet to be held in connection with the meeting. The Pennsylvania Raliroad has agreed to make reduced rates for the wheelmen visiting the meet. J. B. Becale of the Race Committee has visited the Waltham track and secured ideas for the reconstruction of the track at Asbury Park.

The National Racing Circuit of the League of American Wheelmen, which will open on May 30, will extend into November this year, within auccession of tournaments throughout the summer. The applications to the Racing Board for sanctions for National Oircuit dates has been so large that a large number have been refused.

Hofinger, the racing man or the Riverside Wheelmen, will make an attempt to lower the five-mile road record at Flushing on April 21. He will start from acratch in the five-mil

The prominent cycling racing men who are now quartered in Paris for the racing season are; Lehr and Verleyen, Germany; Banker, Wheeler, and Crooks, America; Harris, Edwards, Rebertson, Barden, Relph, and James, England; Lumsden, Scotland; Max, Austria; Houben, Belgium; Pontecchi and Tagolino, Italy; Wecky, Bosnia, and Favre, Switzerland. Match races between the leading class Briders promise to become very popular this season. F. J. Titus of the Spalding team has expressed a willingness to race any wheelman in the world, from twenty to twenty-dive miles, for a suitable trophy, with the stipulation that each mile must be ridden in 2 minutes 15 seconds.

Secretary J. S. Donahueof the Pastime Wheelmen announces that the opening century run of his club will be held on Sunday, May 12; from this city to Isip, L. L. and return. Entries for the run will close on May 9, with J. S. Donahue, Sjaty-sixth street and Avenue A. Charley Earl, the racing man of the Kinys. Charley Earl, the racing man of the Kings County Wheelmen, who has recently been placed in class B, intends competing in the Milburn in class B, intends competing in the Milburn road race on May 30.

The Concord Cycle Club of Brooklyn will hold the following club runs this month; April 14. New Dorp; April 21. Ridgewood: April 28. Coney Island.

A meeting of the Paramount Wheelmen of this city will be held on Saturday evening.

Callahan, Porter, Steenson, L. C. and E. C. Johnson, M. F. Carter, and F. H. Allen, the class B racing men, are now training at Louis-ville, Ky., where they will remain until the circuit races open. ville, Ky., where they will remain until the ele-cult races open.
Capt. Smith of the South Brooklyn Wheelmen has called the following club rons for April: 14. Hempstead: 21, King's Highway; 28, Plainfield. The regular monthly meeting of the South Brooklyn Wheelmen will be held on April 19. J. D. A $400 piano and a building lot valued at $350 will be offered in the Hoyland Smith road race on May 30.

The projectors of the new cycle track at Manhattan Beach say it will be in readiness by June 15, even if it is necessary to work at night on the track. The Kings County Wheelmen expect to hold their annual race meet at Manhattan Beach on June 29. The Race Committee are considering holding a race meet in the fall also.

WATER POLO CRACKS ARE READY. The Chicago and N. Y. A. C. Teams in Good Trim for the Championship. All preliminaries are now arranged for the water pole championship series, the first game of which will be played in the New York A. C. tank to-night. The N. Y. A. C. cracks refrained from regular practice yesterday and gave up the tank to the Chicago team. The latter had a lively romp in it during the afternoon and studied its peculiarities with marked interest. A mutual understanding on the important question of referee was reached without any friction, and Dr. J. M. Davis was unanimously chosen. He is a past master of the game, having been a prominent member of the old M. A. C. team in its palmiest days. Each side has the privilege of naming its own judges and timekeeper, and this detail was also quickly disposed of. The only drawback anticipated is lack of accommodation for spectators, but Chicago visitors will not suffer in this respect, as the entire smoke room, which fronts the north side of the bath, has been reserved for their use. The Chicago players were receiving some final touches from their paintaking trainer, John Robinson, when a Sun reporter visited their quarters at the New Manhattan A. C. last night. All hands were reported well, considering the trying journey they had so recently made. Hunt, however, was being treated for a swollen leg, the result of a knock he received in practice last week. He will be sound enough to play in his regular position to-night. He is lot pounds weight, a fast swimmer, and dashing forward. Patrick, his left-hand partner, is credited with the same qualification. He weighs 160 pounds. Capt. G. A. Thorne, who plays centre rush, is the youngest man in the team and weighs 162 hounds. He is a star swimmer and a clever player. He holds the speed championship of his club, also of the Central Association, and was third in the quarter-mile national championship last fall, after winning a heat of the 100-yard race. Thompson, 180: Hurr, 190, and Donnelly, 200, are a powerful trio, said to be capable of playing a fine defending and was the substitute, weighs 170 pounds, so that the average is a fraction over 175.

Those of the New York A. C. team who are not famous swimmers have an enviable reputation as polo players. P. F. Dickey was placed in the last national championship in record time at Chicago, and Murray has also a tig string of fast performances to his credit. The two litationship which their club has held so long change hands without a gallant struggle. ing been a prominent member of the old M. A. C. team in its palmiest days. Each side has out a galiant struggle.

HERE'S APRIL

Now Purify the Blood; Feed the Nerves!

Take Paine's Celery Compound Now.

It Speedily Makes People Well.

Cures Disease When All Else Fails.

In Every Civilized Land It Is a Blessing.

Is Used by Physicians in Every Community.

Endorsed by Thousands of People in New York.

In every civilized country people are now sking Paine's celery compound. Persons employed constantly indoors emerge from the long continement of winter reduced in strength and nervous vitality. The need of a spring medicine for years impressed itself on the attention of a thinking people.

But with a lack of a really valuable scientific preparation people were accustomed to take all sorts of home-made concections—some harmless, but none of any great value.

Finally, in the famous laboratory of Dartmouth medical school, Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., Ll., D., discovered the formula for Paine's celery compound, the remedy that has become the standard nerve restorer, blood puriher and strengthener from one end of the country to the other, the preparation that stands unrivalled as-

The world's great spring remedy. Not only is this known to the people generally to-day, but it is the one remedy invariably ordered by the modern class of physicians in all cases of nervous debility.

Since the appearance of Paine's celery combound, when first prescribed by Prof. Phelps, there has been no difference of opinion among acientific men as to its unrivalled merits.

The reports of the many cases where this remarkable remedy has acceled health have again and again been given attength in the medical reviews and the newspapers, until to-day the whole country is familiar with the power of Paine's celery compound over disease. More than one influential paper has spoken in editorial columns of this great modern ramedy as a remarkable instance of a scientific discovery, emanating from the very highest medical authority, and taken up later by the whole people, till to-day it is the recognized remeily of the world for all forms of weakness. No such complete agreement of the popular happened. bound, when first prescribed by Prof. Phelps, belief and professional judgment ever belief happened.

Just now, when the new year—that is the spring—is overhauling the bedly and trying to arone it to drive out disease, it is well to know what to do in order to help the good work along. When the nerves count up the game and losses of the winter most every one is sure to find that he stands in need of a spring medicine to tone nim up, to make richer and purer blood, and to make his nerves sound and vigorous. The marmake his nerves sound and vigorous. vellous ability of rapidly reconstructing worn out tissues, of purifying the blood, and feeding tired nerves has won for Paine's celery compound the written endorsement of thousands of careful physicians.

point the written endorsement of thousands of careful physicians.

It is a fact much commented on that men and women of national reputation and prominence, educated people, who are careful what they employ when sick, have of their own accord sent letters describing fully their permanent recovery from rheumatism, heart weakness, sleepleasness, debility, kidney troubles, and from diseases of the stomach and liver.

In all these cases of recovery from serious disorders and the general feeble health that comes directly from a bad state of blood and impaired nerves, Paine's celery compound has always removed disease and established health again. It begins to give its great relp immediately.

This is how it has made men and women come to speak of it as "the remedy that makes people well." This significant phrase has been repeated so often from mouth to mouth that it is now so often from mouth to mouth that it is now everywhere inseparably associated with Paine's celery compound, not only by the physicians who daily prescribe it, but by the thousands of alling people, young and old, who go to it for aid and comfort.

Take it now.—Adv.

Mr. Nutting Sues the Pells for His Son's Share of the Polger Estate.

Lee Nutting, as the beir of his deceased son, Lee Folger Nutting, has brought an action in the Supreme Court to recover the interest of his son, valued at $30,000, in the estate of his son's grandfather. William D. Folger, who died March 2, 1885. Objections to the probate of the will were filed, but they were withdrawn on a compromise by which the widow, Mary Ann Folger, was to have the estate for life, and at her death it was to go haif to Mary E. Pell and haif to Lee Folger Nutting. On May 15, 1890, Lee Folger Nutting gave his grandmother a deed of his interest for an expressed consideration of $1. He died March 24, 1892. Mrs. Folger conveyed this interest to the three children of her daughter. Mary E. Pell. Albert W. Pell, Arthur C. Pell, and William J. Pell, Jr., who are made defendants in this action. Mr. Nutting says that his son was an imbecile for years and had to take newerful drugs.
